The screen displays a list of expense records under the title 'GSB' and subtitle 'Vos fiches de frais'. The list is presented in a table format with two columns. The first column contains numbered entries (1., 2., and several empty rows). The second column contains up and down arrow icons for the first and last rows, indicating a scrollable list. The screen is framed by a black border, and the bottom navigation bar shows standard Android icons (back, home, recent apps).
